

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) announced today that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has announced that the Holyoke Housing Authority (HHA) has been selected to receive financial assistance in the form of two grants. A $300,000 grant will be used to fund the HHA's Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) program. The grants are being distributed through HUD's Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) program. HUD distributed 156 grants worth $10.7 million to public housing organizations and resident organizations in the past year.

"I am pleased that HUD has recognized the hard work and dedication of the Holyoke Housing Authority," said Congressman Olver. "The HHA has been a leader in the community and we are proud to support their efforts."

The Holyoke Housing Authority will receive financial assistance in the form of two grants. A $300,000 grant will be used to fund the HHA's Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) program. The grants are being distributed through HUD's Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) program. HUD distributed 156 grants worth $10.7 million to public housing organizations and resident organizations in the past year.

The grants are being distributed through HUD's Resident Opportunities and Self Sufficiency (ROSS) program. HUD distributed 156 grants worth $10.7 million to public housing organizations and resident organizations in the past year.

HUD distributed 156 grants worth $10.7 million to public housing organizations and resident organizations in the past year.

###

For more information, contact Ray Murphy, Executive Director of Holyoke Housing Authority,